At Long Last: A Tour Win for Furyk

Nineteen Holes at Augusta National

Etihad

League Underway

City Golf held the first leg of its Etihad Corporate League series at the end of March.

The competitors played The Belfry, a course located in England that has hosted several Ryder Cups. In keeping with the English theme for the night, free-flowing Teletys was served with 'burgers and mash'.

Two Scotsmen, however, were the winners for the evening.

City Golf has also invested in a new portable golf simulator, which will be used in exhibitions and can be rented for events and private parties throughout the country. The set-up is exactly the same as the Full-Swing Golf simulators that are the centrepiece of City Golf's outlet in Bangsar Shopping Centre. The simulators offer over 60 of the world's best courses and have the ability together to be programmed for Nearest to Pin and Longest Drive contests. When the portable simulator goes on the road, a City Golf member accompanies the machine so users can get all of the benefits the machine offers.
